Remebering 9-11-01

10 years later

To the faithful readers of this newsletter, I can honestly say that I did not think there would be a newsletter this month. I was having internet troubles for nearly two weeks prior to Hurricane Irene and then Irene wreaked her havoc. I have also been struggling with my article. I have been writing without any sense that what I was writing would lift people up into God's presence. With that said, I was writing September off with great regret.

Today is September 11th; the tenth anniversary of the tragic attacks that shocked not only our nation but the world. We shed tears, we laughed and we rejoiced in the Lord as we recounted just a few of the ways that God was in the middle of the events on that tragic day in 2001. We sang songs about our freedom in the Lord, and about the blood which was shed by His only begotten Son, Jesus. Pastor Ron gave a powerful word that encouraged us to remember that day, but as a church, rise up and be the body of Christ. The body of Christ is called to be leaders in this world and not held captive by the evil that is within the world. Brenda, Pastor Ron's incredibly anointed wife read a power yet moving tribute for 9/11 for the communion meditation, which I have enclosed in place of Pastor Ron's article.

At the close of the service, Mr. Otis Stevens recounted an event in which he had to stand up to protect his children from a man who was yelling and cursing at them. God showed him that he loves us so much that He jumps up to protect us when the enemy brings on an attack. Everyone was moved by the picture that Otis portrayed of our Lord.

And finally Jonathan Giummule, our youth pastor stood up to give a word that he had received from the Lord. He said that he was moved at the start of the service to write down every 11th verse from every chapter 9 that is written in God's Word. God revealed to each us that He is sovereign over everything. Although many have asked where God was on that tragic day, He reveals in His Word the Glory of His throne.

So for the remainder of what is normally the space for my article, I want to list the scriptures read by Jonathan.

Genesis 9:11-And I will establish my covenant with you; neither shall all flesh be cut off any more by the waters of a flood; neither shall there any more be a flood to destroy the earth.

Exodus 9:11- And the magicians could not stand before Moses because of the boils; for the boil was upon the magicians, and upon all the Egyptians.

Leviticus 9:11-And the flesh and the hide he burnt with fire without the camp.

Numbers 9:11- The fourteenth day of the second month at even they shall keep it, [and] eat it with unleavened bread and bitter [herbs].

"My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?"(Mat 27:46)"Where was God on 9-11?" ... By: Brenda Estes*"Where was God on 9-11?" ...

1. The same place He was when Adam rebelled in Eden – waiting to cover his sin. (Gen 3)
From the very beginning of human history man has acted in rebellion against God who made and loved him. Creating man in His own image, placing him in a perfect environment, making him master over all creation, providing for his every need, and spending time with him in the beautiful garden were ways God demonstrated his love for the crown of His creation. But, albeit deceived by the evil one, man made a conscious decision to rebel against His Creator and Friend. Where was God when man first raised his ugly head of defiance and rebellion? Couldn't He have stopped it before it began? It is not a matter of whether or not He could have. It is a matter of His design for humanity and His plan of redemption. He designed us with a freedom of choice. In His sovereign foreknowledge He made provision before the world was ever created for man's redemption; knowing full well that man would make disastrous choices from the beginning. When Adam and Eve finally "fessed-up", He was there with a covering for their nakedness and shame; exacting the ultimate punishment on an innocent victim to cover man's sin. But, He was there!

"Where was God on 9-11?" ...

2. The same place He was when Job lost everything he had (except a nagging wife) – proving Himself to be God despite unfortunate circumstances. (Job 1-2)
Just as Noah's generation experienced earth's greatest natural disaster, Job would surely rank among the top in man's history as experiencing the greatest personal disaster. Again we see a man, a good man, a godly man standing for what is right and hating what is wrong. Did being "blameless and upright" immune Job from problems, of even disaster? Of course not! Job lived on a planet that at times experienced natural disasters such as tornados, earthquakes and fire. There were evil men in his day, too, who were willing to kill and steal to get what they wanted. And, he became the special target of satanic fury. As a result, Job lost everything of value; even his precious children. Where was God? Had He turned His back on Job? Would Job return the favor by turning his back on God? No! No! and NO! God had not deserted Job. And Job would not curse God, even though he was urged to do so by a less than faithful wife. Where was God when Job was losing all? Where was He when Job's children were killed? Where was He when Job's flesh was wracked with pain? Job maintained his integrity and recognized that it was God's prerogative to give and take, and it was his duty to "Bless the name of the Lord."

"Where was God on 9-11?" ...

3. The same place He was when Joseph was rotting in jail – accomplishing His perfect will. (Gen 37-50)

If ever anyone was misunderstood and ill-treated, it was Joseph. If ever anyone suffered wrongly, it was Joseph. Yet with all his hardships, problems and abuse, Joseph was able to honestly say, "You meant it for harm, but God meant it for good." This was certainly true in the case of his brothers selling him into slavery, Mrs. Potiphar falsely accusing him of attempted rape, and the lapse of memory of his Butler friend. Yet each step of the way, God was able to take Joseph's trying circumstance and mold him ever more closely into the man he would one day become. He was there all the time, though I am sure Joseph must have wondered at times.

"My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?"

(Mat 27:46)

"Where was God on 9-11?" ... By: Brenda Estes

"Where was God on 9-11?" ...

We could go on and on and tell of experiences throughout the Word of God.

.....But maybe the greatest insight into the heart of God when a tragedy strikes such as the 9-11 Disaster is to respond ...

"Where was God on 9-11?" ...

4. The same place He was when Jesus hung on the Cross – enduring the pain for the benefit of others. (Matt 27)

The horror! The agony! The anguish! The pain! .....Not just the thorns on His brow. Not just the lashes on His back. Not just the bruises from the reeds and fist of his captors. Not just the plucking of the beard from His face. Not just the spit being hurled at Him. Not just the nails in His hands and feet. Not just the spear piercing His side. All this, yes; plus the weight of the sins of the world pressing down on His shoulders.

Where was God when His one and only Son hung dying on the cross? Didn't He know? Couldn't He have prevented it.. or stopped it? Was He helpless? Was He not aware? Didn't He care? .....Of course He knew! Of course He could have prevented it! Of course He could have stopped it! Of course He wasn't helpless! Of course He was aware! And, Of course He cared! God knew it was happening, He could have stopped it, ... but He didn't. Is He some kind of fiend? Of course not!

He had a larger picture in view. There was a greater good to be accomplished by the suffering and death of Jesus. Through the suffering of One, many would be made whole. Through the sacrifice of One, many would have their sins forgiven. Through the death of One, many would be made alive.

He wasn't just sitting idle and helpless as His Son suffered. He was using the schemes of wicked hearts to bring about the redemption of mankind. He reminds us that ... "my thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways my ways," declares the Lord. As the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways and my thoughts than your thoughts." (Isa 55:8-9)

"Where was God on 9-11?" ...

The Bottom Line:

God was not surprised by 9-11,

But He was saddened by it.

God did not cause 9-11,

But He does comfort those affected by it.

God may not prevent future acts of terrorism,

But He will provide peace to those whose hearts are filled with hatred if they will turn to Him.

He waits for you, he waits for me.

This may not be your "Normal Communion Meditation".

This is not your "Normal Day or Anniversary".

God said Remember and Commune with Me.....

THE FUNNY SIDE OF LIFE – Various Funnies

Naps

I totally take back all those times I didn't want to nap when I was younger.

Better Grades

The little boy wasn't getting good marks in school.

One day he made the teacher quite surprised. He tapped her on the shoulder and said, "I don't want to scare you, but my daddy says if I don't get better grades, somebody is going to get a spanking."

Failing Eyesight

An older lady was expecting a gentleman friend to call on her later in the day. She was nervous because her eyesight was failing and was afraid her friend might reject her because she was less than perfect. So, she came up with a plan to prove to him that she could see perfectly.

She put a straight pin in a tree that was about 200 feet from her front porch.

When her beau arrived, they sat in the porch swing and were talking when she suddenly stopped the conversation and asked, "Is that a pin sticking in that tree?"

Her friend squinted his eyes and said, "I don't see a thing."

"Well, I'm going to go see," she said as she jumped up, ran toward the tree, and collided with a cow.

Location Question

Tiring of the same old buzz cut from the base barber at Fort Dix, New Jersey, I went into town to get my haircut. The hairdresser noticed my accent and asked where I was from. "Trinidad," I said.

"Is that in Arabia?"

"The Caribbean."

She laughed, "Sorry, I never was very good at geometry."

You are WORTHY of Salvation!!!

"For God so loved the World that He Gave His only Begotten Son, that whoever believes in Him should not perish but have everlasting life. For God did not send His Son into the world to condemn the world, but that the world through Him might be saved."
"John 3:16-17"

Since the fall of Adam and Eve in the Garden of Eden we have been in a displaced relationship with God. We were created to dwell in fellowship with Him, but our sins placed a barrier between us and God. Man has attempted to bridge that gap through many forms of religion and good works, but the fact remains that we cannot build a bridge over this gulf created by Adam and Eve. In God's infinite love and mercy, He sent His only son Jesus to pay the penalty of sin and forever bridge this gap. It is through His love that sin is forgiven. The only thing that we can do is repent of our sins and ask God to forgive us through the sacrifice of Jesus. Romans 10:9&10 says that if we confess with our mouth, the Lord Jesus, and believe in our heart that God raised Him from the dead, we shall be saved. For with the heart, man believes, and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation. You may be thinking that you have done too much wrong to be worthy of God's grace. The point is - GOD LOVES YOU!!!

YOU ARE WORTHY of salvation because Jesus already paid the price for your sins. You can't do anything more or less to make God love you any more than he already does. He desires to have an intimate relationship with you because YOU MATTER TO HIM!

Please Pray This Prayer with Me

Jesus I love you and I know I am a sinner. I have sinned against you and I am sorry. I believe in you and want you in my life right now. Change my life and take away anything unholy. Help me through each day and to seek you in everything. Teach me to pray, give me desire to read the Bible and place me into a church. I can't do it myself; only with you can I make it. Help me Jesus. I praise your name. Put Joy in my heart and mouth. Thank you Jesus, I love you. AMEN.

If you have given your life to Christ please send me an email at bogionews@hotmail.com I would love to read your testimony!
